I personally wait this time for years! So how about a timeline The publishers of our website usually publish new naruto episodes 4 times every year: spring, summer, autumn, winter... On the recent posting (March 2019) we published 14 episodes, before that the publication was at the start of December 2018, before that – at September (from 445 till 459 episodes).. At last Remain Dubbed Naruto Shippuden episodes will be published on our channel very soon.. We waited so long and now it is happening It is hard to name a day, but we pretty sure that last bunch of Shippuden dubbed episodes will be shown in the middle of the June/begining of July.
